19 Kingsview Dr, Flaxton

SOLID, SECURE AND SOUGHT AFTER

On the market for the first time is this superbly built home is situated in a highly sought after Flaxton street. Northerly views abound from the property and extend towards Noosa.

Built for the current owners, this home is surprising in many ways. With 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms the design of the home will suit many tastes. Downstairs, there is a combined lounge / dining room with high vaulted ceilings adding to the feeling of light and space. A country style, galley kitchen is separate keeping the cooking odours away from the living room. A generous master bedroom as well as a huge bathroom and separate toilet are all located here. The Laundry has easy access to the outside for ease of use on washing days.

Upstairs, there are two bedrooms and a 2 way bathroom. Excellent use has been made of the ceiling angles and storage space has been maximised. The generous bedrooms can accommodate the largest of beds, or can include desks for office or study areas as well.

The cape cod style windows allow natural light to flood in creating a welcoming atmosphere throughout. There is a single car garage with remote door however the garage has a vast workshop or studio area alongside it. This could all be converted to extra living or a granny flat with little effort. The 804m2 property has well established gardens and a 3m x 1m lawn locker to house the gardening tools.

This solidly constructed home has so much to offer in such a compact footprint. Only a full inspection will reveal what is on offer here.
